

Abstract

A description is given of (meth)acrylic acid copolymers containing methacrylic acid 5 units, the polymer being functionalized with aminoalkylsulfonic acid. In addition, a description is given of a process for preparation thereof and use thereof for water treatment, scale inhibition in petroleum production and corrosion inhibition in aqueous systems.